

V. Use of Facilities for Art & Craft Exhibits:

Because the Library considers art to enhance the quality of individual life as well as community culture, it will accept art for temporary display in the public area of the library building.

The Library offers exhibit space in which artisans may display their work at their own risk. The Library does not insure articles exhibited and is not responsible for theft or damage at any time to any art displayed at the Library.

The Library does not participate in any sales transactions related to exhibited items. The size of the display and the period of exhibit will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The display must be appropriate for viewing by all ages. Final acceptance of an exhibit rests with the Library Director and or the Board of Trustees.

A release form signed by the exhibitor and the Library Director will be kept on file in the library. It will include a brief description of the exhibit, number of pieces, exhibit dates and contact information of the exhibitor.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to refuse or revoke privileges for exhibitor's dues to misuse of property or other problems that might arise.

3/26/2012

Royalton Memorial Library

Use of Facilities for Art & Craft Exhibits: The Library offers exhibit space in which artisans may display their work at their own risk. The Library does not insure articles exhibited and is not responsible for theft or damage at any time to any art displayed at the library. The library does not participate in any sales transactions related to exhibit items. The size of the display and the period of time for the exhibit will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The display must be appropriate for viewing by all ages. Final acceptance of exhibits rests with the Library Director and or the Board of Trustees. The Librarian or a member of the Board of Trustees must be present during installation of the display. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to refuse or revoke privileges for exhibitors due to misuse of property or other problems that might arise.

Exhibitor name: _____

Mailing address: _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: _____ E-mail address _____

Brief description of exhibit & number of items: _____

Dates of exhibit: _____

Applicants Signature: _____ Date: _____

Librarian's Signature: _____ Date: _____